"Camelot" Opens July 19 At Longwood College

The Daniel Players' production of the Lerner and Loewe musical, "Camelot", opens Thursday, July 19, for a three performance run.

"Camelot" will be presented in the Lower Dining Room of Longwood College in a dinner theater format. Tickets for just the play alone, without the dinner, are also available.

The musical enlists the services of Daniel Player veterans Bob Webber, Mary Breeden, I.B. Dent, Henry Emmerson, Larry Tharpe, Gregg Chiles, and Diahnn Simonini. Others in the cast include Tom Cantieri (making his Daniel Player debut as Lancelot), Chris Young, Tom Willis, John Samford, Calvin Paulette, Anne Watkins, Karen Fratrick, Jim and Luanne Dumminger, Chris Breeden, and Cheryl Adams.

"Camelot" tells the legend of King Arthur, Queen Guenevere, and Sir Lancelot with a Frederick Loewe score considered to be one of the best ever in the American musical theater.

In addition to the usual colorful costumes and stage props, Homer Springer has designed sixteen original scenic projections for this show.

Overall direction is by Dudley Sauve, and the accompaniments will be by Dr. Robert Blasch.

Tickets and reservations may be made by calling 392-8566. They may also be picked up at The Ice Cream Place on Main Street in Farmville.

Hollywood Acteens Held Meeting

On June 27, 1979, the Acteens of Hollywood Baptist Church met at the home of Donna Franklin.

Pam Franklin called the meeting to order, roll was called and the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. Before adjourning, the possibility of having a Mini Flea Market was discussed.

The next meeting will be held on July 25th at 7 p.m. at the home of Carol Ann Jennings.
